

O'NEILL WON LORE FIGHT AGAINST M'COOY'S MAN

Gets Democratic Nomination for District Attorney in Kings County Despite Big Odds.

The defeat of State Senator William D. Carroll of Brooklyn by Assistant Corporation Counsel James T. O'Neill in the Democratic primary for the nomination for District Attorney of Kings was the crowning of a campaign with strong organization and leadership.

of John H. McCann, the Democratic "power" in the borough. But this did not deter O'Neill, who believed that he should have received the endorsement.

"MOOSE ARE COMING BACK AS IN MAINE" IS WHITMAN VIEW.

Gov. Whitman, at the St. Regis Hotel, said the indicated result of the primary elections did not surprise him.

"My majority over Bennett will be even larger," he said, "when the full upstate vote comes in. The results show that the Moose are returning to the Republican fold here, as they did in Maine."

Ex-Judge Nesbary, at his headquarters in the Hotel Breslin, said: "I am still very optimistic, but I prefer to wait for all the figures before saying anything."

cases within the past few months they have announced themselves openly as Republicans.

M'CORMICK SAYS RESULT ASSURES WILSON'S RE-ELECTION. Democratic National Chairman M'Cormick said: "Progressive primary results show that a sufficiently large percentage favor the Democratic candidates to insure absolutely the re-election of President Wilson."

"According to the 1912 returns, less than 25 per cent. of the Progressive vote added to the Democratic vote will give New York's electoral vote to Wilson. Returns from yesterday's primary indicate that the Democrats polled considerably more than 25 per cent. of the Progressive vote."

John J. O'Connell, chairman of the New York County Progressive Committee, said:

"The returns indicate that the Progressive vote has split about 60 to 40, with Gov. Whitman ahead. When you consider that the entire Progressive machine in this State was controlled by Mr. Hotchkiss, who put in all of the leaders and chairmen; when you stop to think of the unlimited money back of the Whitman people; when you figure the great impetus of the Republican machine, and, lastly, the great, big, open barrel, coupled with Col. Roosevelt's personal influence, it is not surprising that the Whitman people won."

"A large percentage of those who voted for Whitman did so because they are returning Republicans from Progressive ranks. It is still a question whether the Progressive organization can be kept up. I shall call a meeting of the county organization to decide on the question next week. William F. Macbeth, who was chosen as the Democratic candidate for the United States Senate by a five to one majority over Thomas F. Conroy, said that he was particularly gratified because of the fact that he had made no personal campaign, and had expended no dollar for the purpose of influencing the primary vote, and had sent out his campaign literature. His lack of campaign cost is a credit to the Progressive movement which "is said to have cost an immense amount of money, running into the hundreds of thousands of dollars."

No returns have yet been received to show whether Hamilton's County Progressive candidate for United States Senator, who has his own party primary nomination away from Calder, Republican, who also was entered.

Intimation was given by Job Hodges that a recount may be demanded of the Republican Senatorial vote. That William Barnes is still a potent factor in the Republican Party was indicated in the surprisingly large vote cast for Bacon. Most of the Republican leaders now in power, including Gov. Whitman, State Chairman Tanner and National Committeeman Parsons, who backed Calder with the strength of their organization, had belittled the candidacy of Bacon and said Calder would win easily.

BARNES' COUNTY OVER 15 TO 1 FOR BACON. No county in the State showed such solid organization and such complete control as Albany, the home of Barnes. Its percentage of total vote cast at the primaries and its majority were unequalled by any other.

Under Barnes' direction Albany County cast 16,658 votes for Bacon and only 1,097 for Calder. Although Barnes' victory in Albany County was not sufficient to elect him Governor, it was a significant showing for the Progressive vote in the State.

In Westchester County there was an upset of progressive candidates in both parties, particularly for the Republican State William L. Wood. The county for District Attorney, Judge Charles A. Winslow, was beaten by the Progressive candidate, Judge Charles A. Winslow, who was elected by a majority of 1,000.

which include Westchester and part of the Bronx, had a hard bump also. James A. Hamilton, former State Senator, was put up for Congress by the Montgomery County Progressive Club. Congressman Walter H. Quinlan, who had had two terms, Mr. Hamilton was elected for the third time and succeeded in winning by 1,000 votes.

Completed in 1915 the total enrollment of the primary, which was a small vote in the primary, that of 12,821 votes, recorded in the Republican Party, approximately 10,000 went to the party. The Democratic vote was 21,875, and only about 15,000 voted in the primary. Progressive enrollment was 46,208, while the number of votes cast was about 28,000.
